Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.
Psalm 69

Jesus told the parable of the Good Samaritan as an interpretation of the two great commands of Judaism: love God and love neighbor.

In Jesus' time, the Samaritan was a hated outsider, yet in today's story, he did the right thing.

Today's parable illustrates love of neighbor.

Dear Padre

July 14, 2019

Scripture readings refer to the vessel holding the Precious Blood as a cup; the liturgy calls it a chalice. Why the change in the liturgy that now conflicts with Scripture?

Translating The Roman Missal follows principles of Liturgiam Authenticam, a Vatican document requiring literal translations of the original languages to clearly and universally express the Church's faith.

Our liturgy uses languages differently in the prayers and Scripture readings. Latin is the source of most prayers in The Missal. Greek is the source of the New Testament used in the liturgy.

The Missal uses the Latin word calix for the vessel Jesus offers with his Precious Blood. Translators use the word chalice, meaning "a cup, goblet, or drinking vessel."

The Gospel and Pauline Eucharist accounts use the Greek word poterion for the vessel Jesus uses—literally, a cup. It is confusing; the priest consecrates the chalice and we proclaim the death of Christ "when we eat this bread and drink this cup."

The Church's desire to communicate faithful translations of languages gives us different words for the same thing. Pastors can use this as a teaching moment so that people are not confused but affirmed in their faith. Whatever we call it, a cup or chalice, it contains the greatest gift of unity we have, the Blood of Christ.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
Dt 30:10-14; Col 1:15-20; Lk 10:25-37

"And who is my neighbor?" This question from Luke 10:29 posed to Jesus prompts one of the most famous stories ever told. A neighbor is one I love as myself. A priest walked by the beaten and abused man. Even though he was someone dedicated to God and his worship, the priest didn't have time to become his neighbor. Perhaps he didn't want to risk ritual impurity by dealing with the bloodied body of an unknown man. Whatever his reasons, he felt he had more important commitments than helping the poor.

A Levite, a member of the tribe in charge of the temple, wasn't his neighbor, either. He also found reasons to justify leaving this man to bleed to death along the road. Perhaps he thought someone else would stop and help. It's easy to abdicate our responsibility.

Then a Samaritan, one disdained by the Jews, happened by. He stopped to help, lifted him up, carried him to safety, and paid from his own pocket for future care; he became totally involved. In an obvious sense, Jesus is telling us to be good Samaritans—that is, to be compassionate and generous to neighbors in need—not just people like us, but to aliens and strangers.

But on another level, perhaps we represent the wounded person by the roadside, in need of healing and restoration from sin. Like the Samaritan, Jesus was scorned by many. But it is Christ himself who wants to pick us up, bind our wounds, and pay for our care. And he pays this debt, of course, on the cross. Are we willing to admit that we need healing from a "Samaritan" like Jesus?
