Pastor
Rev. Peter Oyenugba, MSP

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
psalm 90

In the Gospel of Luke, the question of possessions is treated often.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about a wealthy fool who thought possessions guaranteed life.

He is a fool because in the midst of his good fortune he has lost the sense of what is truly important.

*August 4, 2019
 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time*

Readings:

Eccles. 2:21-23
Colossian. 3:1-5
Luke 12:13-21

Theme:

Faith helps us set Godly priorities.

Question of the week:

What wisdom do you pull out of this reading to help you set priorities in your life?

*August, 11, 2019
 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time*

Readings:

Wisdom 18:6-9
Hebrews 11:8-19
Luke 12:32-48

Theme:

*Do not live in fear.
 Live, and be ready!*

Question of the Week:

On a daily basis, what are some ways to keep yourself “ready for God t act?” How do you pay attention to God’s often-less-than-obvious actions?

New Parish Pictorial Directory:

Jim Hook is back in town and we are anxious to wrap up the parish directory project. Jim will be available before and after all Masses at Our Divine Saviour on August 10 and 11. If you have not already had your family's photo taken for our new parish directory, please see Jim on the 10th or 11th. He will be outside on the front lawn, weather permitting. Please allow us to include your family in our directory. We want it to be as complete as possible.

Jim will be taking photos of St. Ann's parishioners on Sunday, August 18th.

NO Chewing Gum in Church:

Chewing Gum will no longer be allowed in the Church. Our cleaning crew has found a lot of our NEW PEWS with gum underneath the NEW CUSHIONS. This will not be tolerated! Parents, please see that your children do not chew gum in church. Thank you.

Book Club:

The book club will continue reading "The Second Mountain: The Quest for a Moral Life," by David Brooks, from page 189 to the end. We will meet to discuss it on Monday, August 26th at 7:00 pm. Everyone is welcome.

Ministry Fair at ODS:

Our Divine Saviour is planning a Ministry Fair, to be held on the weekend of September 7 and 8 after each Mass. If you are the leader of an organization, and you did not receive a letter inviting your group to participate, this just means that our records are inadequate. We really want everyone to benefit from this opportunity of spreading the word about the many activities in our parish, but we need to know you are coming, so that we can reserve a space for you! Please contact Debbie Blakey (229-339-0986 or deborahblakey@hotmail.com) or Vickie Lubbers (229-392-3567 or 93luded@gmail.com) for more information, and to confirm your group's participation. We hope to see you there!

Vickie Lubbers has made a sample board of the prayer garden for the ministry fair so that others will have an idea of what they may want to do to showcase their group or organization. It will be standing up on in the parish hall.

VIRTUS Training:

There will be a VIRTUS training this Thursday, August 8th from 6:00 to 9:30 pm at ODS.

CCD/ EDGE/ LifeTeen sign up information:

Registration forms for Catechism classes (CCD/EDGE/LifeTeen) will be located at the back entrances of the church beginning July 28. Please fill out both sides of the form. You can drop off the forms to the office with the registration fee, or you can deliver the forms and fee to CCD Coordinator Jackie Beals. If you will be going through sacramental preparation this year (First Communion), we also ask for a copy of your baptism certificate.

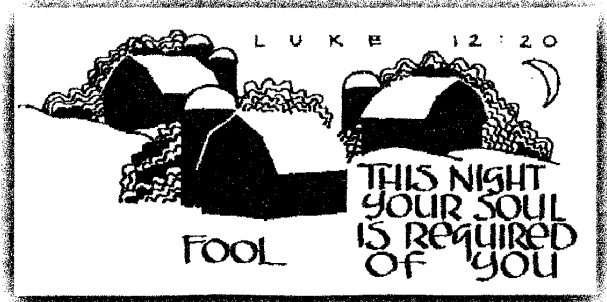

Any individual who will be volunteering with any of the catechism or youth programs must be sure to complete Virtus training, background checks, and code of conduct forms. If you are interested and have not already been contacted with specific requirements from the CCD coordinator, please contact Jackie Beals at 615-417-0050. Virtus training in English will be offered on Saturday, August 3 at 9am or on Thursday, August 8 at 6pm. Please pre-register for one of the sessions by going to VirtusOnline (www.virtus.org) and create an account.

All volunteers and substitutes who will be helping with the CCD program in English or the EDGE program should attend a required meeting after the 9am Mass on August 11. We will meet in the CCD building. This meeting will allow us to discuss procedures, typical classroom organization/lessons, material, and schedules. It is important that all volunteers complete all required documentation to work with minors prior to this meeting.

Catechism classes will begin on Sunday, August 25th after the 9am Mass.

2nd Collection this weekend at ODS:

The 2nd collection this weekend at ODS is for the Building Fund.

Dear Padre

August 4, 2019

His disciples were lucky to glimpse Jesus as he was transfigured in glory. Do I have to die to see Jesus this way, or am I looking in the wrong places?

I think that what the disciples saw at Jesus' transfiguration was a radiant flash of Jesus' promise of eternal glory. His prayerful radiance, in a flash and for a moment, broke through their confusions, fears, doubts, and self-consciousness, illuminating him as the promise for which they longed.

Indeed, we also can sometimes find ourselves longing so much for spiritual clarity that we fail to see Jesus and his promise in the places he really is; that is, in those settings of suffering that call forth his compassion from us. Where should you look to see Jesus transfigured? Perhaps in that single moment when you visit someone who is sick and receive a smile of gratitude. Or when you help out at a food pantry and a child's enjoyment of your bounty brings a smile (or tear) to your face. Perhaps, too, in that moment when, despite personal discomfort, you attend a wake or funeral and your presence radiates the promise of consolation even more than your words.

In fact, probably the best place to look is wherever and whenever you encounter someone vulnerable and your awkward self-consciousness is transfigured into generous, self-giving love. That is both Jesus' promise and his glory.
