Pastor
Rev. Peter Oyenugba, MSP

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.
Psalm 34

Here we see Jesus' compassion and sense of justice reach a peak.

He demonstrates his love of the sinner by eating with them, something that would have been seen by his detractors as very out-of-place for a rabbi such as Jesus.

But as usual, he persists and teaches a valuable lesson; take in the outcast and sinner first and they will later be healed.

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Wisdom 11:22
 2 Thessal. 1:11
 Luke 19:1-10

Theme:

Jesus’ love transforms all people and all things!

Question of the week:

Why do you suppose Jesus was so kind to Zacchaeus? What lesson do you draw from this reading regarding those who are considered “public sinners” today?

November 10, 2019
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

2 Macca. 7:1-2
 2 Thessal. 2:16
 Luke 20:27-38

Theme:

God strengthens us and we live him forever.

Question of the Week:

Having faith in difficult times is hard! What makes you believe in the promise that God will be your strength, as Paul says?

Updated Family information:

If you are a REGISTERED Parishioner of ODS or St. Ann and you have any family information that has changed, (death, birth of a child, address, phone number or email change), PLEASE notify the Parish Office so we can keep our records updated. If you are not registered and would like to be, call the office at 382-4600.

"In Thanksgiving We Give Back to the Lord"

Thank you to all parishioners who have completed and submitted your Commitment Card to the Church. As a reminder, all commitments need to be submitted to the church no later than Sunday, November 3 in order to be accounted for in the final Summary Report. Please complete and submit your card to the church even if you are unable to make a change to your current level of giving. For those registered parishioners not currently supporting the church with regular offertory gifts, please consider a monthly gift to support the needs of our parish.

Book Club:

The book club will meet again on Monday, November 4th at 7:00 pm to discuss "Saints and Sinners in the Cristero War: Stories of Martyrdom from Mexico" by Fr. James Murphy. Everyone is invited to read the book and join us for the discussion.

Activity Center Use:

If your parish group or if you personally have rented the Activity Center for a specific date and need to set up or decorate the night before PLEASE check with the Parish Office to see if it is available for you to go in the day before. The Activity Center is used a lot by many church groups. Thank you!

Advent Faith-Sharing Groups:

The First Sunday of Advent is just about a month away (Dec. 1). We are organizing our Advent faith-sharing groups now. The Monday morning group and the Friday evening group are up to capacity (and more). The Sunday evening group can accept more members. We are always willing to help form new groups, so if you are interested please contact Margo Martin (margo.martin@mchsi.com or 382-2442) and she will see what we can do to organize new groups.

CCW Holiday Food Baskets:

It is that time again to consider and contribute to the ODS Thanksgiving and Christmas Food baskets. Jeanne Creel is heading up this food drive and each week she will let us know what is needed. This week we will be collecting CANNED VEGETABLES and CANNED FRUIT. You can drop off your donation in the parish hall or at the parish office during regular office hours. You are always welcome to make a monetary donation instead.

Share your blessings this year by donating to the food baskets for needy families in our community. Thank you

CCW News:

The annual CCW "Pennies from Heaven" clean water project has started. There is a large water cooler bottle inside the front door of the church. Please toss any spare change into it as you enter or leave mass. Every time you hear the coins drop, that is a new well being dug, or repaired, for a community who is in desperate need of clean water. Thank you.

Daylight Savings Time Ends:

Daylight Savings Time ends this weekend. Don't forget to turn your clocks BACK 1 HOUR on Saturday night.

Good News!

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Wis 11:22-12:2; 2 Thes 1:11-2:2; Lk 19:1-10

Jesus, on the road to Jerusalem, passes through the town of Jericho. His intention was to move right through, yet when he catches sight of Zacchaeus, he stops and changes plans. Jesus was on the move, yet not so obsessed with plans and objectives that he didn't notice the needy soul of Zacchaeus peering down upon him from a sycamore tree.

Part of being an apostle of Christ is having a heart that's always attuned to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit. We can't be so consumed with our good fortunes that we miss opportunities to offer Christ's salvation to those around us.

Zacchaeus was a public sinner and a publican who, as we know, were the hated tax collectors and collaborators of the Romans. Rather than a person to visit he was, for the Jews, someone to be avoided. Not for Jesus! Our Lord came to seek and save the lost. And Zacchaeus wanted to be found. He was so driven to see Jesus, he made himself look ridiculous by climbing a tree, admitting to his short stature and curiosity.

How many souls along our path are showing their unquenchable thirst to discover Jesus and, even more, to be discovered by him. While amassing worldly riches, they realize that their deep hunger can only be satisfied by something else. Only spiritual things can satiate the Spirit. Let's be willing to go off-road and facilitate these encounters with Jesus—of course, after we ourselves have been encountered by him.
